

External reviews

26 January 2016, LA review of SEN provision. Lead reviewer: Kim Bolton (NLE)

Key finding: “Hove Park School provides a super inclusive culture. Every learner is valued. All students in uniform and almost no litter... Review evidence supports school improvement plans are effective and Hove Park is an improving school.”

21 – 23 March 2016, Challenge Partners. Lead reviewer: Tony Byrne

Key finding: “The Quality Assurance Review found indicators that Hove Park School appears to be firmly within the Good grade as judged in the school’s Ofsted report March 2013.”

20 June 2016, National College of Teaching and Leadership (NCTL). Lead reviewer: Peter Matthews OBE (and former HMI)

Key finding: Hove Park School was awarded teaching school designation. NCTL state that “teaching schools are all excellent schools.”

4 October 2016, unannounced behaviour inspection, Ofsted. Lead HMI: Dr Simon Hughes

Key finding: “Leaders and managers have taken effective action to maintain the high standards of behaviour and attitudes identified at the school’s previous inspection.”

The inspection found “detailed evidence of the full range of actions... taken to address [attendance]... the attendance of the vast majority of pupils compares well with attendance rates of pupils in other schools nationally.”

10 January 2017, Challenge Partner peer review, higher attaining pupil premium students. Lead reviewer: Carole Sullivan

Key finding: confirmed the school’s overall approach and supported the school with suggestions for further actions.

17 and 24 January 2017, Pupil Premium Review. Lead reviewer: Kim Bolton (NLE)

Key finding: confirmed the school’s overall approach and supported the school with suggestions for further actions.